

English 105 Student Learning Outcomes

1. Upon completion of this course, students will use reading strategies to understand texts.
2. Upon completion of this course, students will compose an organized essay.
3. Upon completion of this course, students will use evidence to support claims.
4. Upon completion of this course, students will correctly use quotation marks and cite source material.

English 51 and 56 Student Learning Outcomes

1. Upon completion of this course, students will use reading strategies to understand argumentative texts.
2. Upon completion of this course, students will compose a clearly-written, well-organized, purpose-driven analysis.
3. Upon completion of this course, students will use evidence from multiple sources to support claims.
4. Upon completion of this course, students attribute and document sources correctly.

English 1A Student Learning Outcomes

1. Upon completion of this course, students will use reading strategies to understand argumentative texts that contain both literal and implied meanings.
2. Upon completion of this course, students will compose a clearly-written, well-organized, purpose-driven analysis.
3. Upon completion of this course, students will synthesize evidence from outside sources to support claims effectively.
4. Upon completion of this course, students will attribute and document sources correctly.

English 1B Student Learning Outcomes

1. Upon completion of the course, students will evaluate a literary text for its use of genre conventions.
2. Upon completion of the course, students will gather, evaluate, and effectively integrate research materials to produce a critical analysis of a literary text.
3. Upon completion of the course, students will compose a clearly-written, well-organized, purpose-driven literary analysis.

English 1C Student Learning Outcomes

1. Upon completion of this course, students will synthesize evidence from outside sources to support claims effectively.
2. Upon completion of the course, students will be able to compose a text that effectively uses elements of argumentation to support a claim.
3. Upon completion of the course, students will be able to evaluate arguments for validity and soundness.